The Racial Equity Commission (Commission) is hosting a hybrid meeting with in-person and remote options available to those wishing to attend. We are committed to ensuring access for all who wish to participate. You may attend the meeting in-person at the location noted above, or connect to the meeting electronically, via Zoom or on our YouTube. For this meeting, the Committee will be following the Special Teleconference Rules for Advisory Bodies outlined under Gov. Code, § 11123.5, which allows members to participate remotely.

Virtual Participation Information: Click here to register to participate virtually.

Building Access Information: The Racial Equity Commission meeting will be virtual. However, to participate in the meeting in person, you may attend in person at the Governor's Office of Land Use and Climate Innovation located at 1400 Tenth Street, Sacramento, CA. At the main entrance, please ring the bell for access and proceed up the stairs immediately in front of the entrance. Upon reaching top of the stairs on the second floor, proceed down the hallway on the left past the restrooms and kitchen and enter room 202 through the double doors.

If you need to use an elevator to access 2nd floor, proceed from the entrance down the hallway to the elevator on the right-hand side and take it to the second floor. Proceed down the hallway on the left, past offices, restrooms and kitchen and enter room 202 through the double doors.

Meeting Information:

The Commission will host a hybrid meeting, with in-person and remote participation options. Both options will have opportunities for public comment. The Commission remains steadfast in its goals to promote transparency and public participation. To do so, the Commission has arranged multiple options to listen, view, and/or comment during the Commission meeting. Please note there may be some technical issues during the hybrid Commission meetings.

Instructions for Providing Public Comment:

Public comment is an important part of every Commission meeting, and this hybrid meeting is no exception. If you plan to comment on an agenda item, or on a matter not on the meeting agenda, please follow the instructions below.

To make remote public comment, you will need to connect (online or by phone) to the meeting using Zoom.

To make a public comment: Visit racialequity.opr.ca.gov/meetings and complete the public comment form linked there. You will need to complete separate forms for each item on which you wish to speak. You may complete a form at any time during the meeting. When the public comment period opens for your item and you hear your name in that list, please raise your hand. You can do this by clicking "Raise Hand" under the "participants" menu, which you can find at the bottom of your screen on the Zoom platform, or by pressing *9 if you are joining by phone. The Commission staff member who is facilitating public comment will call on you upon seeing your raised hand. Commission staff will unmute your microphone when your name is called.

To make in-person public comment, please fill out the digital comment card form using the laptop at the sign-in desk to be added to the public comment queue. Prior to making your comments, please state your name for the record and identify any group or organization you represent.

Timing of Comments:

Public comments will adhere to the length the meeting chair announces during the meeting. Commission staff will share a timer and ask speakers to end when their time is up.

Trouble-shooting technical problems on Zoom:

Please use the Q&A Function and Staff will respond quickly. If you are participating by phone, please email RacialEquityCommission@opr.ca.gov.

General Guidelines for Participation in Commission Meetings:

All times indicated and the order of business is approximate and subject to change. Public comment is taken on each agenda item as well as at the end of the meeting. If you wish to speak, please fill out the online public comment form at racialequity.opr.ca.gov/meetings for in-person and remote public comment. Prior to making your comments, please state your name for the record and identify any group or organization you represent. Depending on the number of individuals wishing to address the Commission, the Chair may establish specific time limits on presentations.

The meeting agenda and accompanying action item materials will be posted on the Commission website at www.racialequity.opr.ca.gov 10 calendar days prior to the meeting. To receive future notices for the Commission meetings, please sign up for the Commission listserv at www.racialequity.opr.ca.gov. This meeting will be recorded, and the recording will be posted on the Commission website 10 days after the meeting.

The Commission will host a hybrid meeting, with in-person and remote participation options. Both options will have opportunities for public comment. The Commission is committed to promote transparency and broad public participation. To do so, the Commission has arranged multiple options to listen, view, and/or comment during the Commission Meeting.
